

Romance By Design Ltd.
Waiver Of Liability

I, _____ (your name) do hereby hire Romance By Design Ltd. to decorate my hotel room. I understand that in order to do so, a representative of Romance By Design must be granted access to my hotel room at _____ (name of hotel) on the date of _____ (date of decoration) where I am a registered guest. I understand that at no point will a Romance By Design agent be given a key to my room. A hotel employee will accompany said representative to the room and provide access. I understand that it is my responsibility to notify the hotel front desk of the date and time of said decoration and add Wally Daniels and Meghan Jenkins (Romance By Design agents) to my registration folio. If I am delivered candles as part of a package I understand it is my responsibility to check hotel policy regarding candle burning ahead of time and make necessary adjustments to my order. I will not hold Romance By Design accountable for any loss or damage of property, be it personal property or hotel property during the course of my stay. I have been advised not to leave any items of value in the room during the time of the decoration. I understand that if my room is not cleaned and presentable for decorating (bed made, tables cleared) a fee of $25.00 will be imposed for cleaning the room prior to decorating. I have been advised that in order to avoid a possible cleaning fee by the hotel I will clean up the room decorations before check out.
